ADM'L DEWEY TALKS

Thinks Best to Send Big Fleet to Pacific Ocean

TRANSFER MISSION OF PEACE

Necessary For Us To Hold The Balance Of Power On The Pacific—The Defenses On That Coast Are Not Up To The Atlantic.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Admiral Dewey, who is sojourning for the summer at Richfield Springs, N. Y. is quoted in an interview published in the American today, as saying in regard to the transfer of the battleship to the Pacific:

"It is a pity we have not ships enough to keep powerful fleets in both oceans, but since we have not, it seems that in the interests of peace it is best at this time that our fleet should be in the Pacific.

"This cruiser transfer, or whatever you like to call it, is a mission of peace. I do not think it likely that this country will become seriously involved with any power. But if trouble should come by any chance, it is well to be fully prepared for it.

"It is necessary for us to hold the balance of sea power on the Pacific. The defenses on that coast are not up to the standard of the Atlantic. That the nation that has this power controls the situation was proven in our war with Spain.

"There were 175,000 Spanish soldiers on the island when Cervera's fleet started out of the harbor at Santiago de Cuba. With the sinking of the fleet, the war practically ended.

"Fortunately the United States is so big and has such vast internal resources that it cannot be bottled up as were the Spanish fleet, but the necessity for power on the seas remains."

In discussing the possibility of the fleet going to the Philippines, the admiral said:

"I would say that unless the danger was most imminent it would not be advisable to concentrate a large fleet with hundreds of officers and thousands of men in Philippine waters. The climate is not right, as I know from personal experience.

"I believe one of the reasons we had such an easy victory over the Spaniards was that they had been so long in that enervating climate. I am certain that we would not have fought so well when we left as when we entered.

"An enemy might take the Philippines and Hawaii, but as soon as we met them on the sea they would have to give them up. The very presence of our sea force in the Pacific will serve every purpose."

Admiral Dewey said there should be no trouble in taking the fleet around the Horn into the Pacific. The battleships, he said, should have no more difficulty than a ferry has in crossing to Hoboken. It was merely a question of coal and a question of dollars.

So far as leaving the Atlantic coast unprotected by the transfer of the fleet, Admiral Dewey said there was nothing to fear. There were no enemies to threaten the Atlantic coast, he said, and even if there were, the army could take of them. The admiral said the coast defenses there are in excellent shape.

In closing the interview, Admiral Dewey intimated that he saw two possible effects of importance in the transfer of the fleet. He believes it will urge the construction of another Atlantic fleet, with the ships now building as a nucleus and he hopes it will stimulate and hasten the completion of the Panama canal.

CELESTIALS ROBBED.

Seattle, July 7.—Four residents of Seattle's Chinatown were robbed in their bedroom late yesterday morning by a houseworker. The orientals were greatly excited by the advent of the thief, and were unable to furnish Rev. James Fung, of the Baptist Chinese Mission, who reported the case to the police, with the slightest description of the intruder. Twelve dollars in silver and two watches rewarded the robber. The Chinamen lived at the Chinese mission.
